

INTEGRITY POLICY

04/10/2024

“Only by providing outstanding service and quality work will we achieve our aims of long-term success and sustained improvements.”

TRP Laboratories is committed in having trusting relationships with our customers and stakeholders. As leaders in the automotive sector, we hold ourselves to the highest standard of professional behavior and integrity through:

- Conducting our business honestly and transparently.
- Complying to rules, laws, and regulations.
- Never taking part in bribery, insider trading, or any form of corruption.
- Instilling the code of ethics to guide our decisions, not personal choices.
- Promptly reporting any concerns to management.
